Annual General Meeting & Review of Electoral Roll (Membership List)

The AGM will be held on Friday 26 April 2024 starting at 10.00 am at Saint Stephens Church in Tala.

This is the first AGM as an Association which will mean that some things will be different this year because of Cypriot legislation relating to Associations. We need as many people as possible who are entitled to vote to attend the AGM. At the start of the meeting, we will need to ascertain that we have at least 50% of Church (Association) membership present. If we do not have the required number, then the meeting has to be adjourned for 30 minutes after which it can be reconvened, and we need to have at least 30% of the membership present. If we do not have those numbers attending the meeting, the meeting has to be abandoned.

The effect of failing to have the numbers necessary to carry out the AGM by the end of April would be that the Association will be struck off the register by the legal authorities, the bank accounts would be closed and shortly afterwards we will have lost The Anglican Church of Paphos. Hence the reason why we are appealing to all of you who can, to attend the meeting.

The second aspect to meeting the numbers required is to try to ensure that the membership list of the Association includes, to the extent possible, only the names of those people who are likely to wish to attend and vote at AGMs. We are currently updating the electoral roll prior to it being copied across into the membership list of the Association and will need to apply more strictly than in the past the requirement that those on the electoral roll need to be attending services for a cumulative minimum of four months across the year. However, irrespective of the number of services which you attend, if you know that you would be unlikely to want to attend and vote at AGMs (which will typically take place during April) or stand for election, it would be greatly appreciated if you could consider not to be included in the voting membership list. This will be really helpful in ensuring that we can demonstrate clear compliance with the AGM quorum requirements moving forward. Should you change your mind in the future, you can apply to join the membership list at any time.

After the AGM, the ACP is legally required to tell the Registrar who is responsible for companies and associations, the date of the AGM, the number of people who are members, the number who attended the AGM and to submit audited accounts.
