WEEKLY NEWS

Sunday 13th March 2022
(2 Lent)

WELCOME

Welcome to this week's edition of Weekly News. I got a thought for you. I love the start of a new day, even one where you are dragged from your dreams by an enthusiastic fairly large dog jumping on the bed telling you at 6am (or earlier) that it's time to get up. There is just something glorious about that opportunity for a fresh start, a new beginning, what has passed has happened and there's nothing you can do about it. You have the new day where you can make a difference. Now that is one of my simple pleasures. What are yours? Hopefully reading the Weekly News!

PS. My wife, Wendy, has pointed out that music must be one of my other simple pleasures as another bill has come in for music downloads on iTunes!

PRAYERS FOR THIS WEEK

Collect:

Almighty God, you show to those who are in error the light of your truth, that they may return to the way of righteousness: grant to all those who are admitted into the fellowship of Christ's religion, that they may reject those things that are contrary to their profession, and follow all such things as are agreeable to the same; through our Lord Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

A Prayer for this week.

Almighty God, by the prayer and discipline of Lent may we enter into the mystery of Christ's sufferings, and by following in his Way come to share in his glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

A Prayer for Ukraine

We continue to hold Ukraine in our prayers. We pray for the Holy Spirit to guide those in power to see that no good can come from this conflict and that peace and dialogue is the true option. Bless all who are striving for peace, the aid agencies and guide us in what we can do, through Jesus Christ, our Lord and saviour, Amen.

Psalm 16: 8

"I am always aware of the Lord's presence; he is near, and nothing can shake me."

Our Diocese:

Heavenly Father, bless our Bishop, and endow him with the grace of a good shepherd; that he may have a strong faith and lead us to worship God in Spirit and in Truth. Bless our Diocese with good Christian families, an increase in vocations to serve you. Amen

In our own Parish of Paphos:

Almighty God, You are the Lord and the giver of life; we invite you to be the guide of our efforts towards growth of our churches. Be the light that will convert those who are not yet converted, that will illumine and bring back fallen Christians and that will strengthen the struggling Christians not to lose heart. Increase our resources to keep alive our commitment to evangelise in our Parish. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord and saviour, Amen.

GOD SLOT

Do you believe in God? Do you believe there is life on other planets? Do you believe that sometime we will get a government that will actually get things right? Will Norwich get back in the Premiership? So many questions. I have another one for you. What do you think about life? Are you a glass half empty or half full type of person? I like to think I'm on the side of half full; but a friend recently told me that I had strayed into the half empty side because I had been moaning about not having enough time to do things. Now I thought that was positive because I wanted to do more things in the time I had, however, he'd seen it as a negative because I was moaning. I got him on my side by the end of our discussion, which I think was mainly due to the 4 or 5 glasses of wine he'd had during supper rather than my keen intellect and well thought out argument. Whether we are a positive or negative person has a huge bias on how we answer any of the questions above or indeed any question that is asked. I have another part of the equation to add and that is because I'm a Christian that also adds some bias to how I answer a question. But I believe this gives me an answer to any question – and that is “God knows”. All you have to do is change the tone in your voice and it will work. Think about it.

God Bless,

Revd Ken

JOKE SPOT:

Little Johnny was the church organist and he was listening to the Vicar's sermon about abstaining from drinking alcohol. The Vicar with great expression, said, 'If I had all of the beer in the world, I'd take it and throw it into the river.' With even greater emphasis, he said, 'And if I had all of the wine in the world, I'd take it and throw it into the river.' And then finally, he thundered, 'And if I had all of the whiskey in the world, I'd take it and throw it into the river.' The church was silent. Not a single member of the congregation made a sound. Little Johnny then stood up hesitantly and said, 'For our closing song, let us sing the hymn "Shall We Gather at the River."'

Growing old is inevitable, growing up is optional ☺.

LENT

Have you considered this as an idea for your Lent giving..... Perhaps you can donate the items to Friends Hospice, Tala Cats or Paws.

New Collection Point – St Stephen's

In line with the collection points at Ayia Kyriaki (for Caritas) and St Luke's (for Solidarity), St Stephen's has now set up a collection point also. This collection of food, toiletries, clothes etc. is part of the overall Outreach Programme as the Anglican Church of Paphos. St Stephen's will be working alongside Dawn Palmer, a Social Worker for 'Human Kind, A Helping Hand'. She helps around 120 individuals in Paphos on a weekly basis. The majority are refugees housed in camps mainly in Kato Paphos, Chloraka, Tala and also includes individuals/families who have fallen on hard times. It is also for families identified in Tala by the Mayor. This initiative is led by Kevin Townsend and assisted by Rema Lawson. Please feel free to speak to them if you need any more information or wish to assist.

Ukraine Appeal

The intense conflict in Ukraine is threatening the lives and livelihoods of civilians across the country. The UK Disaster Emergency Committee has set up an appeal for aid. If you have a UK bank account and would like to donate, go to the website www.dec.org.uk for more information. More than £100million has been raised and is being matched, up to £25million, by the UK Government. Please help if you can.

You're Always There for Me

When the world comes crashing in
And chaos rules my mind,
I turn my heart to you, Lord,
And pure, sweet peace I find.

You lift me out of trouble
You comfort me in pain;
You nourish, heal and cleanse me,
Like cool, refreshing rain.

In times of joy and bliss,
When things are going right,
You lift me even higher,
And fill me with delight.

You listen to my prayers;
You hear my every plea;
I'm safe because I know
You're always there for me.
