Prayers for this Week

We pray for all Christians and parishes to take the opportunity to go deeper and listen more intently to God, and for Canon Paul Maybury as he helps and encourages them. Let us join together with our brothers and sisters throughout the world; praying for the Persecuted Church, for those members of the Coptic Church so brutally murdered on that beach in Libya; for the many members of the Assyrian Church who were kidnapped this last week and whose whereabouts are unknown. In this time of Lent, a time of penance and prayer, let's be united in prayer for all those who do not have the freedom to join together in worship; let us pray with all true members of faith, whether Christian, Jew or Muslim and strive together for peace and reconciliation, and a better understanding between all peoples. We pray for peace in Syria, Lebanon, Iraq and that the violence will not spread to neighbouring countries; and we pray for Christian ministry to flourish in our Gulf Chaplaincies. In our own Parish of Paphos we pray for our Lent courses and the Women's Day of Prayer on Friday.

It is with sadness, that we have to announce the death of Norman Wilkinson, a long-time member of Ayia Kyriaki Congregation, in the early hours of Tuesday morning; please keep Hilda and family in your prayers. Norman's funeral will be on Tuesday 3rd march, 2p.m. at Ayia Kyriaki.

For further prayers during the week please go to our Diocesan Prayer Guide Booklet and also the Anglican Communion website: www.anglicancommunion.org/acp

PARISH NEWS / LATEST NEWSLETTER

On or about 12th February, people on each of the emailing lists for our three congregations were sent the first Newsletter for 2015, a few copies were printed for those without email who specifically request this, and a copy was placed on the Notice Boards for each church. If you have not received this, please check with Di Sylvester (AK and St. Luke's) or Chris Cross (St. Stephen's) if we have your email address or notify us if you would like a printed copy. Even if you are not on the Electoral Roll of the Anglican Church of Paphos, and even if you are not permanently resident in Cyprus, you are welcome to receive our occasional newsletters.

Meeting of Wardens and Bishop re the process of appointing a new priest after Rev'd Nic departs in May.

Parking Outside St. Stephen's: The Congregation of St. Stephen's would be grateful if anyone attending the Church could refrain from parking on the open space outside the building.

We would like to keep this free for the disabled and people with limited mobility only. Thank you.

Women's Group Report: Despite the freezing temperatures on Thursday 19 February, 20 women gathered at St. Stephen's to hear a most informative talk by Maxine O'Daly of the Cancer Patients Support Group. Unfortunately snow and treacherous roads prevented members from Polis from attending. Maxine was glad to receive a total of €75 in donations from those present. Grateful thanks to Norma Redpath for organising the gathering and to the women of St. Stephen's for the tea. Julia DD

WANTED: A co-ordinator for the Women's Group

The Women's Group requires a co-ordinator. This is not a very onerous task as the organising committee comprises competent, organised representatives from each congregation. However, they are also already committed and busy women so not able to take on the role of co-ordinator, which is done mostly by e-mail and phone. If you feel you'd like 'a project' and are able to contribute in this way, please contact Julia DD.

you.

Please can you spare an hour a week (either morning 8am or afternoon 4pm) to walk a small dog belonging to one of our Church members who is physically unable to walk. Rita lives in Geroskipou. Please contact Jacquie Hammond or Gill Powell. Thank

Can you smile and say "Good morning / evening"? Could you multi-task and give out a hymn book and service book? Will you, PLEASE, join the team of sidesmen at Ayia Kyriaki? Duty is, usually, only once a month. Give your name to any Warden. Thank you.

Can you read? If you could prepare at home would you be willing to be a Scripture reader? You can choose O.T. (+ Psalm) or N.T. Please speak to any Warden. Thank you.

Bob and Jean Wickens new address and contact details from the 9th March, will be as follows:-

Bishops Cleeve is about ten minutes drive from Cheltenham.

Ellie and Ron Cummins, from Chandlers Ford in Hampshire, send their love and best wishes to the parish, and especially to all who remember them.

Ellie (82 in September) and Ron (85 in May) are very active in their church and community and go to the local gym (!) three times per week. They are also kept 'busy' with ten grandchildren, and great grandchildren.

More information is available from Mary Brown 99 863194 or email maryb42@hotmail .co.uk

An Invitation to Explore Intercessory Prayer in our Sunday Services: We need additional people to lead intercessions at our services. Whilst you might feel you haven't the skills, we would encourage you to join a Workshop at which we will explore prayer, or rather how to prepare intercessions for a service. We hope that those who currently lead prayer will be present to give insights and help.

To attend the workshop will not mean you have to commit yourself to join the team of people who currently pray in services, but we hope you will come with an openness to learn and to ask whether this is a way you can serve God and the church. We hope that following the Workshop you will stay to enjoy a simple buffet lunch..

The 'Exploring Prayer' Workshop will be held on Friday 27th March from 11.00am at St. Stephen's Church, Tala. For further information, or to confirm that you wish to attend, contact Rev'd Andrew, Ann Bailey or Trevor Sait.

Dear friends,

On Sunday night, when I heard the terrible news of the martyrdom of the 21 Egyptian young men in Libya, I telephoned the Bible Society publishing manager and told him "We must have a scripture tract ready to distribute to the nation as soon as possible!"

Here is an English adaptation of the poignant poem which is on the back cover of the tract:

*Two rows of men walked the shore of the sea,
On a day when the world's tears would run free,
One a row of assassins, who thought they did right,
The other of innocents, true sons of the light,
One holding knives in hands held high,*

*The other with hands empty, defenseless and tied,
One row of slits to conceal glaring-dead eyes,
The other with living eyes raised to the skies,
One row stood steady, pall-bearers of death,
The other knelt ready, welcoming heaven's breath,
One row spewed wretched, contemptible threats,
The other spread God-given peace and rest.*

A Question...

Who fears the other?

The row in orange, watching paradise open?

Or the row in black, with minds evil and broken?

Please pray that during this period of sadness and unprecedented openness God will use this tract to comfort and challenge hundreds of thousands of people.
