Prayers for this Week

This week, at the start of Lent, we pray for Archbishop Justin and give thanks for the worldwide network of Anglican dioceses and their people; we also pray for the whole Church of Christ, regardless of denomination or tradition. In the Province of Jerusalem and the Middle East, we pray for the Diocese of Iran; its Bishop the Rt Rev'd Azad Marshall, all priests and lay leaders in that predominately Muslim country. In our own Diocese, we pray for St. Christopher's Cathedral Bahrain in Central Manama and also the church in Awali; we pray for the home groups, the Ecumenical Conference of Charity, the Bible Society' Resources Centre, and their new curate Jon Lavelle as he develops his gifts and responds to new challenges. In our own Parish of Paphos, we ask God's blessing on our planned Lent courses, our Parish priest Nic and the worship team, and all participants in those courses. Help us Lord to join, with Christians worldwide, in this time of self-examination and penance, to come ever closer to our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ on our journey to a glorious Eastertide.

Please remember in your prayers the family and friends of Anthony Frederick Stacey whose funeral took place last Wednesday.

For further prayers during the week please go to our Diocesan Prayer Guide Booklet and also the Anglican Communion website: www.anglicancommunion.org/acp

GENERAL NOTICES

PLEASE NOTE: Rev'd Nic and his family will be away until the evening of Thursday 26th Feb. during their children's half-term school break.

PARISH NEWS / LATEST NEWSLETTER

On or about 12th February, people on each of the emailing lists for our three congregations were sent the first Newsletter for 2015, a few copies were printed for those without email who specifically request this, and a copy was placed on the Notice Boards for each church. If you have not received this, please check with Di Sylvester (AK and St. Luke's) or Chris Cross (St. Stephen's) if we have your email address or notify us if you would like a printed copy. Even if you are not on the Electoral Roll of the Anglican Church of Paphos, and even if you are not permanently resident in Cyprus, you are welcome to receive our occasional newsletters.

Items in that Newsletter - also available on our website - include:

Meeting of Wardens and Bishop re the process of appointing a new priest after Rev'd Nic departs in May.

- "Steps in Faith", a 5-week course prior to Easter
- Special collection during Lent for the ministry of Christ Church, Aden

- Jacquie Hammond to be the new Vice-Chair of Parish Council
- General news, updates and a few prayers

The next edition, to be emailed in about 2 weeks' time, will have the Holy Week & Easter schedules and further parish news and updates.

WANTED: A co-ordinator for the Women's Group

The Women's Group requires a co-ordinator. This is not a very onerous task as the organising committee comprises competent, organised representatives from each congregation. However, they are also already committed and busy women so not able to take on the role of co-ordinator, which is done mostly by e-mail and phone. If you feel you'd like 'a project' and are able to contribute in this way, please contact Julia DD.

Annette and I attended the Synod for the Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday up until just after lunch. This year some of the Churches on the east of the island used this as an opportunity to replenish their stocks and they purchased in excess of €200 of Coffee, Tea and Hot Chocolate, but the amazing thing was that delegates from the Middle East purchased about €450 of goods.

The Bishop had announced our presence and stated that all the profit made would go to aid the Anglican Church in Aden and it's Eye Hospital.

When purchasing their needs 3 customers thanked us for the work we were doing with Fair Trade and said that they did not require any change from the notes given to us and that whatever the change would have been it should be applied to the Church in Aden.

The very good news is that we were able to raise €117.74 for that very worthy cause.

The Venerable Malcolm and Mrs Buzz Squires, who were in Paphos for 6 weeks at the end of 2013 when Malcolm was a Locum priest here from the UK, send their greetings to all in the parish. Some of you saw them at a service at Ayia Kyriaki last Sunday, whilst on holiday in Cyprus with family including grandchildren.

Please can you spare an hour a week (either morning 8am or afternoon 4pm) to walk a small dog belonging to one of our Church members who is physically unable to walk. Rita lives in Geroskipou. Please contact Jacquie Hammond or Gill Powell. Thank you.

Can you smile and say "Good morning / evening"? Could you multi-task and give out a hymn book and service book? Will you, PLEASE, join the team of sidesmen at Ayia Kyriaki? Duty is, usually, only once a month. Give your name to any Warden. Thank you.

Can you read? If you could prepare at home would you be willing to be a Scripture reader? You can choose O.T. (+ Psalm) or N.T. Please speak to any Warden. Thank you.

Social & Fundraising Committee are looking for people with fresh ideas on social and fundraising events to join the committee. Meetings are held every 4-6 weeks and it would be advantageous to encourage representatives from each worship area. If anyone is interested, please call Chris Hoskins on 97 753973.

Diary Co-ordinator: At the recent Christmas Fayre and fundraising meeting it was identified that there is an urgent need for a whole parish diary co-ordinator to operate a booking system of events to prevent overload and conflict of interests. This was discussed at this month's Council meeting and Sarah Sait has agreed to update the website diary and to bring to individuals attention should there be a clash of dates.

Further News of the Possible Anglican Church of Paphos
Christmas Cards Project: My very grateful thanks to all those who have come to the recent meetings to share their thoughts and expertise and for the e-mail support. I am now ready to hear from all those who feel they, or someone they know, would like to design a card. I can send you more detailed information of what we are looking for. Assuming the project gets Council approval, we will need all the artwork by the end of April so that four Christmas cards designs can be chosen and printed. I need to know we have people who would like to design cards so I can complete the business plan to present to the Council meeting in March. I look forward to hearing from all those who are interested by the end of February, please.

The 9.30am service at St. Luke's on March 1st will be followed by a congregation tea, also a farewell to Jean and Bob Wickens; everyone welcome.

(email: annbailey707@hotmail.com) before Friday 6th March or add your/their name to the list on St. Stephen's notice board. This is not just limited to the St. Stephen's congregation. All are welcome to the service which will include anointing with oil if people so wish.

At the session on Friday 13th March, Sue and Lou will be coming to show us how to make the cards they recycle and sell in our churches. Please make a note of the change of date and join us if you can.
