Gift Aid can boost Church finances: If you pay UK income or capital gains tax please help the Church by using the blue Gift Aid envelopes for your Open Plate donations. This will add approximately 25% to any donations you make, as the Church can reclaim the basic rate of tax from your donations. If you are or intend to donate via the Pledge Giving Scheme, you can complete a one-off Gift Aid declaration. Please ask for a pen if you need one.

To make a Gift Aid declaration, you will need to pay UK Income Tax and/or Capital Gains Tax in any tax year greater than the amount of Gift Aid claimed on all your Gift Aid donations in that year, or you will be responsible for any difference. Income tax includes tax credits on UK dividend income. Boosting the Church income in this way will be a very welcome additional contribution to finances.

For our visitors and any residents eligible to Gift Aid:

PLEASE, if you are putting your donation in a Gift Aid envelope, would you make sure that the details on the front of the envelope are completed; if this is not done we are unable to claim the tax refund.

GENERAL NOTICES

Reverend Andrew's Absence: Reverend Andrew will on sick leave from Monday 12th November to Sunday 25th November following a small operation on Monday 12th November.

Personal Possessions: Please would you ensure that you have oversight, at all times, of your possessions during the service. Thank you.

Roger Jones' Musical: Following on from the success of the sell-out musical Barnabas in 2016, the production of Roger Jones musical ROCK, The Story of Simon Peter, will be staged in Paphos on the 14th November at the UKCA club, as well as five other venues across the island. The musical will be conducted by Roger Jones with 5 soloists from the U.K. and a local choir (including many of our church members). Tickets are now on sale for the Paphos performance from Terry Dirienzo (terry@dirienzo.co.uk or 955 40354) or John Finn (finbojohn@icloud.com or 992 89751) at €7.50 each to include canapés and a glass of wine. As there are only 150 tickets available please buy early.

Synod 2019: The Synod representatives for 2019 will be Sarah Sait and Chris Hoskins; the Parish can also send up to 8 observers (at their own expense) if you would be interested in attending, as an observer, please contact Di Sylvester, if you wish to find out more please have a word with one of last year's Synod observers whose names can be obtained from your Church Warden.

Palm Crosses: Please can anyone help us find some palms so that we can start making palm crosses in the next few weeks. We need the 'hand' type, good quality and fresh. I would be pleased to hear from anyone who knows of any. Margaret Keeble 26422380/99533704

Quiet Days: Fifteen parishioners enjoyed an excellent day of reflection with Maggie Le Roy on the theme of Hope at the Tala Monastery, last Tuesday. Maggie presented us with lots to think about and the wonderful autumn weather allowed for three periods of reflection to be enjoyed, outdoors, in glorious warm sunshine. A further Quiet Day is to be held at St Stephen's on Monday 19th November. These are important opportunities to both refresh and deepen your faith. Don't, lightly, miss these opportunities. Reverend Andrew

House for Duty Post: during October, two advertisements, over two weeks, were placed in the Church Times advertising our need for a new Associate Priest. Unfortunately, no applications were received. Archdeacon John has recommended that the post be re-advertised early in the New Year. It is thought that the uncertainty over Brexit issues has contributed, to a large degree, to the lack of applications. Please continue to pray about this matter as both your Council and the Bishop consider how this difficult situation can be resolved in the immediate months, ahead and for the longer term. Reverend Andrew Legacy Giving - Have you thought of leaving a bequest in your Will to the Anglican Church of Paphos?

The Parish in Paphos receives no external funding. Our only income is from donations and collections from our regular congregation members, visitors and those attending Weddings, Funerals and other special services - so gifts from people like you make everything we do more possible.

Gifts in Wills provide additional income to charities and organisations such as our Church. Depending on the size of the gift, payments to the beneficiary can be made in different ways - as a one-off payment, periodically via a trust fund, bank or invested on behalf of the beneficiary to provide future income.

You can specify the purpose to which your gift can be put - general running costs, purchase of new or special equipment, building construction and maintenance - the list is endless.

All donations and bequests will be gratefully received and treated in the strictest confidence.

If you would like to include the Anglican Church of Paphos in your Will and need advice or information on how to proceed, please take a Legacy leaflet from the dispenser on your way out or ask the sidesperson for one, or visit the 'Giving' section on our web-site at www.paphosanglicanchurch.org

Christmas Fayre Update:

We now have Richard and Helen Jordan and Jan West as members of The Rainbow Stall Team - a very big thank you to them. They are up and running and are keen to receive lots of gifts for the stall. This week we are working on catering plans. Are you or any friends of yours able to come to the fayre on Wednesday 5th December by 10 a.m. to do the BBQ cooking? The shopping will be organised in advance so, we are just searching for two or three people to cook the burgers and hot dogs. We have two large gas BBQs promised for the cooking and the egg and bacon butties are all sorted. We do need a 3 or 4 burner gas BBQ with a covered dome to use as the warming cupboard to serve from. Do you have one you can offer? Do keep all your Good as New donations coming in thick and fast, leaving things for Bric A Brac, Clothing Boutique, and Books and DVDs at the churches while sending donations and prizes for all the other stalls directly to the stall holders. Finally two twin cabs with drivers available for a couple of hours at 8.30 a.m. on Set-Up Day, which is Tuesday 4th December, and again from 3p.m on the day of the Fayre are also needed. Please ask friends as well as parishioners as people are often very happy to lend a hand to help us to help others.

I am looking forward to hearing from you with offers to help as quickly as possible. Thank you for your on-going support.

Margaret Keeble 26 422380

Christmas Fayre - Jam making / glass jars: autumn weather approaches and oranges are beginning to ripen. It's the marmalade making season and I urgently need clean glass jars with lids to make preserves for the Christmas Fayre. If any parishioners from St Stephens or Ayia Kyriaki churches have jars to offer, I would be pleased to collect them from the church kitchens. Many thanks in advance. Chris Marsh 9601 5718

Scene At Cypgulf: The Diocesan publication Scene At Cypgulf brings important news about the Diocese and about news from the Diocesan Standing Committee which met recently. It is important that we keep up to date with all that is happening in the Diocese, both on the Island and in the Gulf, and this publication ensures this.

NOTICES FOR TODAY, THIS WEEK & NEXT SUNDAY

Prayer Support Group: The next meeting of the Prayer Support Group will be on Wednesday 7th November at 10.30a.m. in St Stephen's Church, Tala. If you know of someone requiring our prayers, please would you inform Liz Jackson-Moore, Joan Brewster or Barbara Reid as soon as possible. The consent of the person who you wish to recommend is required, before they can be added to our list.

Pat Kingston's Funeral: Pat's funeral will take place in Ayia Kyriaki on Friday 9th November at 1.30pm. Following the service, the family will attend her interment at the Geriskipou cemetery. After the service, friends are invited to celebrate Pat's life at the Windmill restaurant. Philip, Pat's son, has indicated that if you wish to wear something other than black, please do so. Reverend Andrew

ACP Annual Dinner Dance: Our next, and now annual, church Dinner Dance is on Friday 9th November. After such a great time last year, we are again holding it at the Kamares Club, Tala. The evening promises to be an occasion not only for fundraising but just as importantly for fun and fellowship.

In addition to a spectacular three course buffet which includes vegetarian options, there will be a raffle offering outstanding prizes and dancing to the fabulous duo 'Blue Jar'. You are invited to arrive from 6.30pm for a 7.00pm start.

The event is informal but we do ask the gentlemen to wear jackets or 'black tie' if you prefer and cocktail style dresses by the ladies.

Tickets are now available priced 30 Euros each (excluding drinks) from the usual sellers after Sunday services. Why not make up a table with family and friends – arrange a table of 10 or more people and get ONE place FREE!

For those of you who are 'off island' but wish to book places, this can be done through the church web site www.paphosanglicanchurch.org Go to the contact section and send your requirements via the automatic email. (Please note that once you have made a booking via email you will be required to pay in full even if you cancel)

If you really are unable to attend the event, you don't have to miss the opportunity of winning the raffle as tickets will also be on sale after Sunday services – the more you buy the greater your chance of winning!

Please help to make this a special and wonderful occasion and give it your full support by attending.

ACP The Dinner Dance: We are just under a week away from what will be a wonderful, fun occasion. If you haven't yet got your ticket, there may still be a chance to squeeze you in, but act, today! This is part of the Major Fund-Raising team's program and your support is very much needed. See you there! Reverend Andrew Remembrance Sunday - 11th November: There will be a Service of Remembrance - with Trumpeter - held at Ayia Kyriaki Church at 6.00pm. All are welcome and please note that Regimental Ties and Medals are welcome to be worn.

ADVANCE NOTICES

The next meeting is being hosted by AK and is held at St. Stephen's Church on Thursday, 15th November at 3 pm.

There is a change in the Speaker as the scheduled Speaker had to leave the country on a family emergency.

However, we were fortunate to get at short notice an excellent Speaker, Carol Skene, an ordained Minister, now retired in Paphos.

With Heart to God and Hand to Man is Carol's topic for the afternoon.

Carol has been a Minister in The Salvation Army for some 25 years. Carol will take us on journey from the slums of the late 1800's to work that has now spread to more than 135 counties throughout the world; and with stories of life as a Salvation Army Minister.

We are privileged to have a person in our midst, who can share her incredible life experiences with us, so I do hope you can come, listen and take something back with you.

The meeting is normally for an hour with the ability to interact with the Speaker. After which there are light refreshments and time to socialize with other members.

You can find more information about the Group at the Church's website: <http://paphosanglicanchurch.org/about-us/community/womens-group/> or contact Rema Lawson on 97 766564 or womensgroupappaphos@gmail.com

Quiet Day: Second Half of Life - 19 November, 9.30am - 3.00pm at St. Stephen's

Sometimes we get to a point in life where we say 'Is that all there is?' And yet we hear at the back of our minds and hearts that Jesus came to bring us life in all its fullness. Where do we go to bridge this disconnect? The day aims to explore how we can be spiritually resourced when we are questioning if the best of life is behind us. We need wisdom and resource for the road ahead; could a new focus in God give us something of that fullness Jesus talked about? The Rev Roy Shaw will give input from his wealth of experience in the UK. There will be a practical element to the day with worksheets as well as brief times of worship. Do come and enjoy this time of friendship together. Please sign up for this event with our honorary church secretary, Di Sylvester at: churchsecretary04@gmail.com or phone her on 99103976.

Date for your Diary: Carols for Christmas at St. Luke's will be held in the Church at Prodromi on Saturday 15th December 5.30p.m. This is a chance to sing popular Carols, listen to poetry and readings and finish the evening with a glass or two of mulled wine, in friendly company. Bring your friends, family and neighbours. People who don't usually go to Church are especially welcome to join us as this is an event open to everyone. Start Christmas with us! More info from Di Sylvester 99 103976.
