WELCOME

Happy new week. Welcome to latest edition of the Weekly News.

COLLECT and PRAYERS FOR THIS WEEK

Collect:

O God, you declare your almighty power most chiefly in showing mercy and pity: mercifully grant to us such a measure of your grace, that we, running the way of your commandments, may receive your gracious promises, and be made partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Prayer for this week for our Parish and Ourselves.

Heavenly Father, walk beside us as we endure the joys and the challenges of the new week ahead. Give us the strength we need to challenge all that is wrong and fill us with your grace to bless all those we meet. Send Your angels to guard over us. May good counsel guide us in all our decision making this week. May we be empowered to make decisions that will make our life better. In Jesus' mighty name we pray, Amen.

Psalm 145: 18

“The Lord is near to all who call on him, to all who call on him in truth”.

GOD SLOT

Reading about the exam results in UK this week it started me thinking about academia and knowledge. Although knowledge is a good thing, it has inherent dangers. It can lead to pride and a ‘know-it-all’ superiority. In 1 Corinthians 7: verse 8 it states, ‘Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up’, which I think, as a thick Geordie, is something I can live with. Knowledge is not in itself a bad thing. It’s like underwear – it’s useful to have, but not

God Went Fishin'

God went fishin' and Jonah was bait;

swallowed by a fish, what a terrible fate.

Don't ya know your future's lookin' mighty black

When you're squirmin' around in a digestive tract!

So if you hear the call of God, don't hesitate;

He might go fishin' and use you for bait!

(Harold Hull)

necessary to show it off! Instead of trying to impress others with what we know, we should be trying to encourage and build them up in love. Knowledge can so often lead to pride and arrogance. What really matters in life is loving God and living a life of love. Love recognises that Christ gave up his life for everyone of us. If we can all understand that when we hurt a friend, we hurt Christ, we may just make a difference in this world we live in. So to me, love is more important than knowledge. When God measures a person he puts the tape round the heart, not the head. It's no good just knowing lots about God; we need to know him, and let him fill us with love for him and for others. In other words, it's not what you know, it's who you know.

God Bless

Joke Spot:

Little Johnny was a vicar and a new couple attended the service at his church one Sunday morning. The man was very moved by Little Johnny's sermon, so he stopped to shake his hand as they were leaving the church. "Reverend, that was the best damn sermon I ever heard!" Little Johnny replied, "Oh! Why, thank you sir, but please, I'd appreciate it if you didn't use profanity in the Lord's house." "I'm sorry Reverend, but I can't help myself... it was such a damn good sermon!" Little Johnny replied, "Sir, please, I cannot have you behaving this way in Church!" "Okay Reverend, but I just wanted you to know that I thought it was so damn good, that I put £1,000 in the collection plate." Little Johnny's eyes opened wide as he remarked, "I'll be dammed!"

ARCHBISHOP MICHAEL VISIT TO PAPHOS

++Michael will be coming to preside on 4th September at 8.15am at Ayia Kyriaki and 11.00am at St Stephen's so please "get out of bed and attend". It would be good to have full attendance at those services. Thank you.

EMERGENCY CONTACT/NEXT OF KIN - HELPING US TO HELP YOU.

If something serious happens to you, who will know who to inform, or indeed, who will act on your behalf? Does the church know who you wish to be contacted? And what about those people, perhaps friends or neighbours of yours who live alone? Would you know what to do on their behalf in case of an emergency? Emergency contact/next of kin forms are available at church solely for this purpose - to make life easy for you and yours. After completing the form (detailing your contacts and wishes) the information is stored securely in the church office. For your security and peace of mind why not complete the form which is available from your Church Warden - you know it makes sense.
